FORMFUL RACING AT NEW ORLEANS. Five Out of Six Favorites Won and the Ring Received a Fearful Bumping.

SANTA TERESA ALONE FAILED. Public Choice in Long Race Ran Third to Compass and Eliza Dillon—Scorpio on the Bit—New York by a Head.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. New Orleans, La., Feb. 2.—Five out of six favorites scored to-day and the ring received a terrific bumping. Santa Teresa was the only favorite to be beaten. She ran third in the fifth race. Compass won the race by two lengths after leading all the way. Eliza Dillon proved to be the contending horse. Compass, Handspring, Santa Teresa and Eliza Dillon entered the stretch necks apart. Compass was the best horse at the finish, but Eliza Dillon had to be ridden out to beat Santa Teresa a neck for the place. Handspring quit all over at finish and ran a poor fourth. Duellist carried the Schorr colors to victory in the first. He was well backed at 2 and won by a head from Typhoon and Ralph Young. Handspring drew a close finish on the winner. Presentist got off badly. Stand Pat displayed fine speed for a half mile, then quit to nothing. McWilliams is the best weight packer at the track. He picked up 122 pounds in the second race and beat Burning Glass by a neck in a hard drive. Hicks really won the race on McWilliams. The black Archer put up one of the best finishes of his riding career. On McWilliams. It was strictly a two-horse race. McWilliams and Burning Glass alternating in the lead all the way. Oclawaha got off poorly and never cut any figure in the contest. Felix

After several months work, E. L. Masqueray of the Exposition has completed a bird's-eye view of the grounds and buildings. The picture is splendidly done in water colors and is about 9 feet long by 5 feet high. It shows every building on the grounds, together with the roads, avenues, lagoons, gardens, concessions, railways and in fact every other detail of architecture, and landscape on the site. The viewpoint presumably is somewhere over the main entrance at Des Balthiere avenue, and takes in the grounds at an angle of about 55 degrees. The detail in the picture is worked out with the greatest care, and every building is shown almost exactly as it will appear when the Exposition opens.

Hard went well to the stretch, then stopped all over. The withdrawal of Big Ben and Duffell resulted in Scorpio being made an odds-on favorite in the third race. He broke running in second position, went to the front at once, and after indulging Scudgwick with the lead to the stretch drew away from his horses and won impressively by a length. Scudgwick had no trouble defeating Rome for the place. Cut-erill displayed early speed, but quit under pressure at the end. New York had to be ridden out to beat Over Again in the fourth race. Over Again opened up a big gap on New York going down the back stretch, but the favorite came with a rush in the home stretch and won by a head. Over Again beat Carlsruhe a half length for the place.

Hands Across at odds on, won the sixth at 2 1/2 lengths from Doctor Stephens. Hymettus. This pair had a close contest for the place. Track good; weather clear. CRESCENT CITY SUMMARIES. First race, six furlongs—Duclet, 109 (W. P. Hill), 2 to 1; won. Typhoon, 108 (H. Young), 3 to 1; second. Burning Glass, 107 (W. P. Hill), 3 to 1; third. Time, 1:34. Santa Teresa, 106 (H.
